

Plot #053

6	Our Darling * Shirley Ann Baker 1941-1945 (W side, block missing top—old plot map) Clara Snodie Panek 1916-1936 * (top, engrv'd floral des.—permit, receipt & old plot map)	Evelyn McCampbell 1913 (old plot map) Sherman Alford 1914 (old plot map) Alva Clark Alford (ashes—family info only—see notes next pg)	1
5	* Mother Luretta Brace 1856-1917 (top—permit & old plot map)	Nina May King 1919 (old plot map) Lurena Brace King Alford (ashes—family info only—see notes next pg)	2
4	This space shows as reserved for “below”—possibly Goodman? on old plot map	Leon O. King 1908 (old plot map)	3
	This space not numbered on old plot map.	* Viola M. Dick Wife 1910-1964 (top—old plot map)	3B

* headstone in place—7/2007

Plot #053

approx. headstone placement

Notes re:
Lurena Brace King Alford
 and Alva Clark Alford
 family info only—there is no actual cemetery record of either person, however, according to Grandson, William R. Alford, these two ash urns were buried "one night after dark". No reason was given for this action, but each one was buried with their child... Sherman being the son of Alva and Nina being the daughter of Lurena. Hopefully dates and further info will follow.

 = perimeter fencing

Plot enclosure: none